1. Introduction

1.1. This Agreement is entered by and between Conotoxia Ltd (hereinafter called “the Company”, “Company” or “us”) on the one part and the Client (“Client” or “you”) on the other part.

1.2. The Company is authorised and regulated by the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission as a Cyprus Investment Firm to offer certain Investment and Ancillary Services and Activities under the Provision of Investment Services, the Exercise of Investment Activities, the Operation of Regulated Markets and Other Related Matters Law of 2007, Law 87(I)/2017, as subsequently amended or replaced from time to time (“the Law”), with CIF licence number 336/17. The Company is registered in Cyprus under the Companies Law, with registration number HE 351239. Its registered office is at Athalassas 62, Mezzanine, 2021 Strovolos, Nicosia, Cyprus.

1.3. This Client Agreement together with its Appendices added thereto and the following documents, as amended from time to time: “Conflicts of Interest Policy”, “Best Execution Policy”, “Risk Disclosure”, “Client Categorization Policy”, “Investor Compensation Fund”, “Leverage Policy”, “Privacy Policy” (all together, the “Agreement”) set out the terms upon which the Company will offer Services to the Client, the rights and obligations of both Parties and also include important information which we are required as an authorised Cyprus Investment Firm to provide to our prospective Clients under Applicable Regulation. By applying for our services, you are consenting to the Terms and Conditions of all the above mentioned documents which form the Agreement and it means that in the event that you are accepted by us as our Client, you and us shall be bound by these Terms and Conditions. For this reason, you are advised to take sufficient time to carefully read all the above mentioned documents which form the Agreement as well as any other information available to you via our Website and make sure that you understand and agree with them before entering into an Agreement with us. You are also advised to read our “Terms and Conditions for the use of the Website”. You should contact us if any further clarification is needed.

1.4. The Distance Marketing of Financial Services Law N. 242(I)/2004, which implements EU Directive 2002/65/EC, applies and we shall provide you with the documents that form the Agreement. Agreement do not have to be physically signed by either the Client or the Firm in order for both parties to be legally bound by it. If the Client wishes to have it signed he/she may print it and sign two copies of the Agreement and send them back to us. We shall keep one copy for our records and send back the other one signed by us as well.

1.5 The Company advises the Client to familiarise himself, prior to investing in OTC Markets, with the market specifics and technical conditions of the Trading Platform through which he will enter into transactions. In particular, it recommends using the demo version of the Trading Platform. The Company notes that the actual result of the investment may differ significantly from the result obtained in the demo version of the Trading Platform.

3. Commencement and Right to Cancel

3.1. The Client fills in and submits the Account Opening Application Form together with all the identification documentation required by the Company for its due diligence and "Know Your Customer" procedures. Completion of above-mentioned procedures result in sending to The Client a notice informing him whether he has been accepted as a Client of the Company.

3.2. The Client acknowledges that the Company will not accept a person as its Client until all documentation it requires has been received by the Company, properly and fully completed by such person and all internal Company checks (including without limitation anti-money laundering checks, appropriateness or suitability tests as the case may be) have been satisfied. It is further understood that the Company reserves the right to impose additional due diligence requirements to accept Clients residing in certain countries. However, the Company reserves the right, at its sole discretion, not to accept a prospective client if the Company deems it appropriate.

3.3. The Agreement shall take effect and commence upon the receipt by the Client of a notice sent by the Company informing the Client that a Client Trading Account has been opened for him. A notice about opening the Client Trading Account or rejecting Client's application shall be sent by the Company not later than within 15 days from the moment of submitting the complete Account Opening Application Form and required KYC documents to an e-mail address defined by a Customer during the registration. It must be noted that the client is eligible to open a maximum number of three (3) trading accounts in total from the four (4) available denominated currency types, but not more than two (2) per currency.

3.4. The Client may cancel the Agreement by giving us notice in writing within the first fourteen (14) days after commencement date. Right to cancel the Agreement will not stand if the Client enters into any trade and such trade has been affected by any price fluctuation.

3.5. In case a client wishes to proceed with the cancellation of the Agreement, a template for the withdrawal notice shall be used as set out in the annex II. The completed annex must be sent to support@cy.conotoxia.com within the time frame specified in point 3.4.

3.6. If the Client does not cancel the Agreement as described in paragraph 3.4, the Agreement will continue to be in effect unless terminated in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Agreement.

4. Client Categorization

4.1. According to Applicable Regulations, the Company has to categorise its Clients in one of the following categories: Retail Client, Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty. The categorization shall depend on the information provided by the Client in his Account Opening Application Form and according to the method of categorization as this method is explained under the document "Client Categorization Policy". By accepting this Agreement Client accepts application of such a method. The Company will inform the Client of his categorization according to Applicable Regulations. The Client has the right to request different categorization.

4.2. The Client accepts that when categorising the Client and dealing with him, the Company will rely on the accuracy, completeness and correctness of the information provided by the Client in his Account Opening Application Form and the Client has the responsibility to immediately notify the Company in writing if such information changes at any time thereafter.

4.3. Provided further that, where the Client has been categorised as a Professional Client per se (not an elective professional client) and the Company provides Investment Advice to the Client, the Company is entitled to assume that the Client is able financially to bear any related investment risks consistent with their investment objectives.

4.4. It is understood that the Company has the right to regularly review the Client's Categorization and change his categorization at the Firm's discretion. The Client shall be notified in writing by the Firm in relation to the above.

4.5. The Company may assign Clients to other specific categories subject to Applicable Regulations, in particular subject to the specific product interventions issued pursuant to Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014 on markets in financial instruments and amending Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 (OJ L 173, 12.6.2014, p. 84, as amended).

5. Appropriateness & Suitability Assessment

5.1. The Company, in regard to the provision of the Services, seeks information from a Client or potential Client regarding his knowledge and experience in the investment field to assess whether the service or Financial Instrument is appropriate for the Client. The Client is obliged to provide all the information to allow the Company to determine whether the service or Financial Instrument is appropriate for him. The Company shall have no responsibility to the Client if such information is incomplete or misleading.

5.2. If, on the basis of information received from the Client, the Company will assess that the service is inappropriate for the Client, the Company warns the Client in writing or by means of a durable medium or not accept the client to provide the investment services according to the Product Governance Policy.

5.3. In order for the Client to access and/or use the Company's Portfolio Management and/or Investment Advice Services (in case the Company offers those services), the Company is required to assess whether its services are suitable for the Client (the "Suitability Assessment"). This is performed by obtaining from the Client, information about their investment knowledge and experience in the respective service, their investment objectives, including their risk tolerance and financial situation, which includes whether the Client can financially bear losses consistent with their investment objectives, during the onboarding stage for the specific investment service. If the Client is a legal entity, then the Company may designate the directors, other decision-making officers, the ultimate beneficial owner(s) as the person(s) to be assessed for knowledge and experience.

5.4. The Client agrees and acknowledges that, the Appropriateness and Suitability Assessment is performed on the basis of information and/or documents provided by the Client, and the Company may rely upon the information and documents provided by the Client, and the Company shall not be liable for any damages or losses which may arise from any inaccuracies. The Company is further entitled to, at its discretion, to request additional information from the Client and/or to request an update of the information provided by the Client, whenever the Company deems necessary.

5.5. In any case, the Client is required to provide the Company with up to date, accurate and complete information to enable the Company to conduct the Appropriateness and/or Suitability Assessment (depending on the Services to be offered to the client). Hence, the Client is obliged to inform the Company immediately in writing of any change on the information provided.

6.4. The Company is entitled to refuse the provision of any investment or ancillary service to the Client.

6.5. The below requirements are applicable in a case where the Client chooses the service of Investment Advice, and the Client passed the Suitability Assessment.

6.5.1. The Company shall provide to the Client information and personal advice about investment possibilities suitable to the client's investment profile and his/her specific investment objectives, in order to enable the Client to take his/her own investment decisions after understanding the investment risks involved in the proposed or desired financial instrument(s) or investment service.

6.5.2. Investment Advice shall be provided to the Client before he/she enters into a Transaction. The Investment Advice service may be provided by telephone or by email.

6.5.3. Clients' Acknowledgment: Investment Advice in relation to that Transaction shall be considered valid only at the moment it is provided. The Client acknowledges and understands that investment advice is subject to prevailing market conditions, as well as economic, political and business risk, during the time in which the advice is being requested or given. Since the Individual Recommendation issued by the Company is valid only at the time it is issued unless otherwise specified, the Client should make an investment decision immediately following its receipt. The Client is specifically made aware that over time, due to changes to e.g. Client's personal situation and investment needs, as well as the events on the market, the Individual Recommendation originally valid and/or suitable for the Client, may no longer be valid and/or suitable for the Client at the time of carrying out the Transaction. The Client should carefully assess the validity of the Individual Recommendation before making investment decisions, and if necessary, request the Company to issue a new Individual Recommendation. Since the Company does not provide ongoing Investment Advice services to the Client, the Company shall not have any duty to monitor the Client's investments or the financial instruments that the Client chooses over a specific time period nor shall the Company have any duty to provide continuous updates to the Client regarding any developments. The final choice for effecting or not any Transaction lies with the Client and the Client will be solely responsible for any unexpected, positive or negative, return on their investments. Hence, the Company shall have no liability in respect of acts or omissions of natural or legal persons which may substitute it during the reception and transmission or execution of the Client's order.

6.5.4. In cases where the Company has assessed any investment services or Financial Instruments as not being suitable for the Client but the Client insists in proceeding with such services or Financial Instruments, therefore acting against our Investment Advice, the Company shall inform the Client of the fact that the service or Financial Instrument the Client wishes to proceed with is not suitable, including a clear explanation of potential risks the Client would incur into by proceeding in such a way. Hence, the Client acknowledges and accepts that the Company shall not be considered as liable for any potential risks which the Client may incur in choosing to proceed with the specific investment service or Financial Instrument. The Client further acknowledges and agrees that Investment Advice is subject to prevailing market conditions, as well as economic, political and business risks, during the time in which the advice is being requested.

6.5.5. Unless the Company provides on-going investment advice services to the Client, the Company shall not have any duty to monitor the Client Transactions or the course of the financial instruments that the Client chooses over a specific time – period nor shall we have any duty to provide any continuous updates to the Client regarding any developments. The Client further acknowledges and agrees that the final choice for effecting or not any Transaction lies with the Client and hence, the Client will be solely responsible for any unexpected, positive or negative, return on his/her investments.

6.5.6. Taking into consideration that Investment Advice shall concern only Financial Instruments offered by the Company, when the Company provides Investment Advice to the Client, such advice may be provided on an independent or non-independent basis. The Company shall explain to the Client in a clear and concise way whether and why the respective advice qualifies as non-independent and the type and nature of the restrictions that apply.

6.5.7. Periodic Assessments: the Company shall conduct periodic assessment of the suitability of the recommendations provided to the Client at least annually, except in cases where the Client requests to be re-assessed in an earlier stage. By considering the risk profile of the Client and the type of the recommended financial instruments, the frequency of the assessment will be increased.

6.5.8. The fees applicable to the provision of the Investment Services and the manner of their payment can be found in the Cost and Charges document published on the Company's website in section Documents and Announcements. In case any changes are made to the structure of the cost and charges, clients will be adequately informed. Unless agreed otherwise, fees are charged by the Company from the Client Trading Accounts, without the need to obtain the Client's consent each time. If there are not enough funds on the Accounts, the Company reserves the right to refrain from performing its obligations under the Investment Advice service agreements concluded with the Client until the Client pays the fees or other liabilities due to the Company.

6.5.9. Restrictions: Investment Advice will be given only in case where the Client has requested to be provided with this financial service and have passed the suitability test. The recommendation that the Client has received from the Company may not be treated by the Client as the assurance or guarantee of the achievement of benefits or profits from the transaction recommended by the Company. Please bear in mind, that if that is not the case, the Company will not advise the Client about the merits of an order or provide the Client with any form of Investment Advice and the Client further acknowledges that they alone are responsible to decide how to handle their trading account and place orders and take relevant decisions based on their own judgment. The Client's investment in Financial Instruments based on the Individual Recommendations provided may involve investment risk. The Client may seek independent advice before entering into a transaction with the Company.

6.6.1. The Portfolio Management investment service shall be provided by means of “managing portfolios in accordance with mandates given by clients on a discretionary client-by-client basis where such portfolios include one or more financial instruments”.

6.6.2. The Company shall undertake the management of the Portfolio in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement. During the management of the Portfolio, the Company shall have the information given by the Client under the Suitability Assessment, as well as to the restrictions and/or guidelines set by the Client in the management of the Portfolio, as these may be amended from time to time.

6.6.3. For the purposes of the provision of Portfolio Management Service, the Client hereby appoints the Company as a manager of the Client’s Portfolio and the Company accepts this appointment, which means the Company’s authority to automatically conclude any transaction or orders and perform operations with the Client’s Portfolio on a discretionary basis, without preliminary consultations or approvals each time with the Client.

6.6.4. The Client hereby agrees to inform the Company immediately in writing if the Client wants to change the Company’s instructions and to advise the Company of material changes to the information provided to the Company concerning the Client’s personal and financial circumstance which might reasonably be considered to affect the Company’s assessment to the suitability of investments held by, or to be purchased by the Client. Incomplete personal and/or financial information may affect the quality of the Services the Company can provide and in certain circumstances, may delay or prevent the commencement of that Service to the Client.

6.6.5. Further to the aforesaid, the Client hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Company shall have full power and discretion for the Client’s account (and without obtaining prior approval). The Client is entitled, by giving notice in writing to the Company, requests changes to their investment objectives and/or to the restrictions/guidelines in the management of the Portfolio. The Company shall be entitled to refuse to accept any such changes and shall, as soon as possible following the receipt of the Client’s relevant notice, inform the Client of whether such a change is approved or rejected. The Client further acknowledges and agrees that no change to the Client’s investment objectives and/or restrictions/guidelines in the management of the Portfolio shall be valid prior to it being accepted by the Company.

6.6.6. The fees applicable to the provision of the Portfolio Management services can be found in the Cost and Charges document published on the Company’s website in section Documents and Announcements. The Portfolio Management services are tailored based on the individual needs and requirements of the Client therefore the Client agrees to be provided with the individually applied cost and charges through the Investment Policy Statement.

instruments in order to facilitate trading in these financial instruments by displaying/ quoting 'bid' and 'ask' prices for such supported financial instruments on our [Trading Platform]. On some other occasions however, we may act as an agent for your order, i.e. the Company won't act as the Execution Venue. Further information regarding these cases as well as on the institutions that will act as Execution Venues will be found on our Order Execution Policy which is duly updated on our website.

7.2. As stated above, we may act as principal, i.e. the Company to act as the Execution Venue for your orders (the "Market Maker") or agent, i.e. our collaborators, e.g. other Execution Venues of Liquidity Providers will be responsible for executing your orders (for the list of Execution Venues with which the Company is collaborating the Client is redirected to our Order Execution Policy, which is duly updated on our Website). We may deal on our own account as your only execution venue for the above listed CFDs. In dealing with you as Market Maker, we aim to achieve the best possible result for you on a consistent basis such that the result is at least the same as could be achieved on other venues. We use independent price sources and liquidity providers in order to derive and benchmark our Prices.

7.3. We source Prices for the CFDs as described in our Order Execution Policy as well as in Section 10 of the present terms and conditions. Where CFDs are based on liquid markets or regulated markets where underlying financial instruments are traded on, our Prices are based on published/ externally verifiable prices.

8. Trading Platform

8.1 Information defining requirements for the equipment that ensures safe access and full use of the Trading Platform are disclosed to Clients. The Client is solely responsible for meeting the requirements including the provision of the internet access.

8.2 The Company will not be liable for any disruptions or delays or problems in any communication experienced by the Client when using the Trading Platform. In addition, it must be noted that the Company will not be responsible for any actions/outcomes of any softwares downloaded and/or applied on the trading platform by the clients.

8.3. In the event of scheduled maintenance work, the Company may temporarily disable access to the Trading Platform. Information on the date and duration of non-access shall be disclosed to the Clients.

8.4. Orders are placed on the Trading Platform with the use of Access Data. It is agreed and understood that the Company will be entitled to rely and act on any Order given by using the Access Data on the Trading Platform or via phone, and any such Orders will be binding upon the Client. The Client's order is considered as placed at the moment when the Company was able to familiarise with its content, not earlier than the Company's information system receives via the Internet an information about Client's Order specifics.

8.5. The Company may restrict at its sole discretion available functionalities in Trading Platform. Therefore, the Client may use functionalities available in the Trading Platform.

9.1. The Client agrees to keep confidential at all times and not to disclose his Access Data to any third person. The Company may treat any person who accesses using your Access Data as being you without enquiring into this further.

9.2. The Client should not write down his Access Data. If the Client receives any written notification of his Access Data, he must destroy the notification immediately.

9.3. The Client agrees to notify the Company immediately if he knows or suspects that his Access Data have or may have been disclosed, intentionally or unintentionally, to any unauthorised person. The Company will then take steps to prevent any further use of such Access Data and will issue replacement Access Data. The Client will be unable to place any Orders until he receives the replacement Access Data. The Client acknowledges that the Firm shall bear no responsibility for any loss that arises as a result of the Client's actions and/or omissions.

9.4. The Client shall immediately inform Conotoxia Ltd if it comes to his/her attention that the Access Data or any other information have been used or have become known without his/her consent. The Client agrees that he will cooperate with any investigation the Company may conduct into any misuse or suspected misuse of his Access Data.

9.5. The Client acknowledges that the Company bears no responsibility if unauthorised third persons gain access to information, including electronic addresses, electronic communication, personal data, Access Data when the above are transmitted between the parties or any other party, using the internet or other network communication facilities, post, telephone, or any other electronic means.

9.6. If the Company is informed from a reliable source that the Access Data of the Client may have been received by unauthorised third parties, the Company may, at its discretion, without having an obligation to the Client, suspend the Client Trading Account.

10. Quotation rules

10.1. The Company presents in the Trading Platform Buy and Sell offers (Bid and Ask Prices) of Financial Instruments. The source of the quotations are Execution Venues chosen by the Company. When choosing the Execution Venue the Company shall be diligent, taking care to protect the rights of the Client and takes into account the level of expertise and the opinion that the entity enjoys. In addition, the Company takes into account the best interests of Clients, the scale of activity and the partner's experience as well as the quality of the offered service. Presentation of Bid and Ask Prices takes place during the trading hours specified in the Contract Specification Document disclosed to Clients.

10.2. The difference between the Bid and Ask Prices is the transactional Spread. The transactional Spread presented in the Trading Platform is variable and reflects the offers provided by Liquidity Providers.

10.3. Spreads derived from the Bid and Ask Prices provided by Liquidity Providers may be increased by additional spread and/or commission of the Company.

10.4. The Company may suspend the presentation of Bid and Ask Prices for a specific Financial Instrument in the following cases:

- 1) suspension of quotations of the underlying instrument,
- 2) lack of market quotations of the underlying instruments,
- 3) the occurrence of any of the events referred to as Force Majeure, among others natural disasters, armed conflicts, acts of terrorism, riots, strikes, prolonged power outages, closure of the market on which underlying instruments are quoted, suspension of listing of particular Financial Instruments, changes in trading rules that prevent execution of trades on the basis of the existing rules,
- 4) discontinuance of the submission of quotes by the Liquidity Provider,
- 5) in other situations, which result in the impossibility of delivering quotes by the Liquidity Providers.

10.5. In case any Order of the client concerning any financial instrument has been mistakenly accepted and/or executed by the Company the Company may cancel the transaction or correct the price of the transaction pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Best Execution Policy.

11. Placement and Execution of Orders

11.1. The Client may place Orders directly on the Trading Platform, by using his Access Data issued by the Company for that purpose and providing all the required details listed in paragraph 11.5, or via Phone.

11.2. Orders are executed according to the “Best Execution Policy”, which is binding for the Client.

11.3. Orders may be placed within the hours when the Trading Platform is available to access.

11.4. Prior to submitting the Order, the Client is obliged to acknowledge the Contract Specification Document concerning offered Financial Instruments. By placing an Order, the Client agrees to the terms and conditions set forth in the above mentioned document.

11.5. The order in particular should include:

- 1) name and surname and Client’s Trading Account number,
- 2) the name of the person placing the Order,
- 3) the date and time of placing,
- 4) instrument name and amount of Financial Instruments being the subject of the Order,
- 5) side of the Order (buy, sell);
- 6) price limit if relevant,
- 7) validity of the Order,
- 8) currency of the Account,
- 9) other elements if required by law,
- 10) other elements if required due to the specifics of the Financial Instrument and Trading Platform requirements.

11.6. When placing an Order, the Customer is obliged to have available funds on the Account to establish the margin. In addition when placing the opening Order, the Client is obliged to hold cash in the amount equal to the expected commissions payable for the Order execution.

11.7. Specified amount of margin shall be blocked on the Client's Trading Account for Open Positions and the required margin is the sum of the margins for all Open Positions. The required amount of margin is subject to a permanent recalculation, based on current Financial Instrument price. It shall be noted that the above mentioned margin required is subject to the cash settlement by the client.

11.8. The Company determines and discloses to its Clients, in Contract Specification Document, information about the margin levels for each Financial Instrument.

11.9. Orders may be executed within the trading hours specified in Contract Specification Document.

11.10. Orders shall be executed in the order of their reception by the Company. If the Order contains additional terms of execution, activation and placing of the Order shall be made immediately upon fulfillment of these conditions.

11.11. Unless specifically instructed by the Client to the contrary and to the extent permitted by law, the Company may execute the Client's orders upon any market or exchange and through any clearing house selected by Company, including executing a transaction outside a trading venue. The Client hereby expressly consents to the execution of orders on behalf of the Client by the Company outside a trading venue.

11.12. Upon the request from the Client for the information about the Company's policies and arrangements regarding execution the Company is obliged to present such information to the Client within a reasonable time.

12. Phone Instructions

12.1. The Company accepts Client's Orders and Instructions submitted over the telephone, amongst which in particular are:

- 1) buy and sell Orders of Financial Instruments,
- 2) instructions concerning the withdrawal of money deposited on the Client's Trading Account.

12.2. The Client intending to place Order/Instruction over the telephone shall be identified in accordance with internal phone handling identification procedure

12.3. The Client submitting the Phone Order is obliged to provide all the details essential to execute the Order.

12.4. An Employee receiving a Phone Order, in order to ensure its content, shall repeat the Order details requesting confirmation from the Client. In such a case, the Order is deemed to have been submitted as such, as repeated by the employee and confirmed by the Client.

12.5. A Phone Order is deemed to have been received at the time of confirmation of the fact by the Company's employee.

12.6. The Company may refuse to receive a Phone Order if there are any doubts about the identity of the person submitting the Order, the content of the Order due to a defect in the telecommunications transmission, or the erroneous or incomplete description of the Order and other circumstances that cast doubt on the correctness of the Order.

12.6. The Company does not accept any liability in case of misunderstanding, error in the identification of the person giving the instruction or other errors on its part related to such a method of communication and which may involve losses or other inconveniences for the Client. If the Client undertakes transactions on an electronic system, he will be exposed to risks associated with the system including the failure of hardware and software (Internet / Servers). The result of any system failure may be that his order is either not executed according to his instructions or it is not executed at all. The Company does not accept any liability in the case of such a failure. The Company reserves the right not to execute instructions transmitted by telephone or email. Telephone conversations may be recorded, and the client will accept such recordings as conclusive and binding evidence of the instructions.

13. Order Types

13.1. Trading Platform allows the Client to submit the following Order types:

- 1) Market - direct order placed on the market and executed at first available market price;
- 2) Limit - order is activated and directed to the market when the current Bid or Ask Price reaches the price specified in the Order. At the time of placing the Order, the price in the Buy Order is lower than the current Ask Price, analogically the price in the Sell Order is higher than the current Bid Price;
- 3) Stop - order is activated and directed to the market when the current Bid or Ask Price reaches the price specified in the Order. At the time of placing the Order, the price in the Buy Order is higher than the current Ask price, analogically the price in the Sell Order is lower than the current Bid Price;
- 4) Stop Loss - a condition that triggers a Closing Order when the current Bid or Ask Price reaches the level specified in the Order. This order is placed to reduce losses from an Open Position.
- 5) Take Profit - a condition that triggers the Closing Order for an Open Position to book a financial result. Condition is met when the current Price reaches a level set by the Customer.
- 6) Trailing Stop - a mechanism that automatically changes the price of a Stop Loss order taking into account current Bid and Ask Prices. The parameter specifies the difference between the current Bid and

Ask Prices and the Stop Loss order level, including limitations resulting from the Contract Specification Document;

13.2. When submitting Orders mentioned above in pt. 13.1, Client determines the price at which the Order is activated. Orders are filled at prices that, due to market volatility, may differ from the prices at which Order has been activated. Execution may occur at a less favourable rate than that specified in the Order. The Client shall bear the risk of execution of Order at less favourable price than indicated in the Order, in particular a Stop Loss Order may not provide assumed limitation of loss on the Open Position. Execution of the Order at a more favorable rate than specified in the Order is the Client's benefit.

14. Decline of Client's Orders

14.1 Without prejudice, the Company may refuse to accept an Order in any of the following cases:

- 1) A Force Majeure Event has occurred,
- 2) Company is unable to provide quote for the Financial Instruments due to lack of information from the Liquidity Provider,
- 3) Where the Order does not contain all the data referred to in pt. 11.5,
- 3) Where the Order volume exceeds the maximum value specified in the Contract Specification Document for a given instrument,
- 4) Lack of sufficient funds for a Margin purpose on Clients Trading Account,
- 5) In an Event of Default of the Client,
- 6) The Company has sent a notice of Termination of the Agreement to the Client.
- 7) In other situations resulting from the provisions of the Law and the provisions of the Agreement.

14.2. The Company shall immediately inform the Client by electronic means about any material circumstances preventing the proper execution of the Order submitted by the Client.

15. Margin Call, Stop Out

15.1. The Company determines and discloses to its Clients an Announcement about the warning levels (Margin Call) and minimum level (Stop Out).

15.2. If, as a result of the current market situation, the value of the Client's Trading Account decreases below the Margin Call level, the Company informs the Client about the occurrence by a message transmitted via Trading Platform.

15.3. If the value of the Account falls below the minimum value (Stop Out) calculated from required Margin, the Company has the indisputable right to automatically, without having to obtain Client's consent, cancel active orders and close Open Positions. Open position closure is made by placing by the Company, on behalf of the Client, closing order with Market type. Open Positions are closed according to FIFO (First In, First Out) rule until the Account value exceeds the calculated level of Stop Out.

15.4. The Company and/or a client has a right to cancel a valid and effectively concluded order (transaction) in accordance with the Company's Best Execution Policy, taking into consideration that the order (transaction) has been conducted based on the incorrect quotation.

In case the recalling of an order is not possible, the Company may offer a client compensation. It must be noted that such actions may occur based on the prior provision of the consent from the Client.

The Company reserves the right to suspend, close or unwind any Transaction which has resulted from any miss-configuration, technical error or if the Company suspects any fraud, manipulation, arbitrage or other forms of deceitful or fraudulent activity in a Client's account or multiple accounts with the Company or otherwise related or connected to the any and/or all Transactions. Under such circumstances, the Company shall be entitled to withdraw any profits and charge any costs which it deems, in its sole discretion, to have been inappropriately gained and shall not be liable for the cancellation of any Transaction or profits or in the event of any damages or losses which may result from the suspension, closure or unwinding.

15.5. The Company may change the level of the required margin by disclosing the information to the Clients. In the event of a change in the margin levels, the Client who has an Open Position which will be affected with the change will be informed by email or via Client CRM Portal in accordance with herein terms.

15.6. The Company may change the level of the required margin immediately, after prior notification to the Clients having Open Positions, in case of Force Majeure; and in cases where the Company has a reasonable expectation that exceptional market price fluctuations may occur, the significant reduction of liquidity on the market of the underlying instrument or other extraordinary market events of the underlying market including any reactions based on the actions taken by the liquidity providers. The Company shall notify Client's about the change by e-mail or via Client CRM Portal.

15.7 The funds which are not covered by the Margin at the time of entering into a transaction, remaining on Client's account may be used to settle the losses and other receivables from the Client without a prior notification.

15.8 The Client shall take into account that lack of additional funds maintained on the Trading Account, exceeding the minimum Margin Level, may, in some situations, result in immediate compulsory closure of the Client's Open Positions. The situation described in the preceding sentence may occur due to some unfavorable market conditions or being a consequence of charging Client's Trading Account with Costs and Charges. The Company therefore recommends the Client to maintain a sufficient surplus of funds above the minimum Margin Level.

16. Reporting and Trade Confirmations

16.1 The Company shall provide the Client with reporting on his Orders. In order to comply with the Applicable Regulations in regard to client reporting requirements, the Company will provide the Client with a continuous and online access to his Account via the Trading Platform. The Client will be able to see in his Account the status of his Orders, confirmation of execution of the Order as soon as possible including details such as: execution time, placing time, Order type, venue identification, instrument name, side of the trade, the nature of the Order, execution price, volume, total sum of commissions and expenses.

16.2. Confirmation of execution of the placed Orders is provided to the Client via the Trading Platform and via e-mail when requested.

16.3 A customer who is a financial counterparty or a non-financial counterparty within the meaning of the EMIR Rules is obliged to verify correctness of transaction confirmation, and in case of any objections to the details, to submit them at the end of the first business day following the receipt of the confirmation. No expressed objections by the Client, means the content of the trade confirmation is considered as approved and correct. According to the EMIR requirements, the Company at least twice a year, analyses the possibility to conduct a portfolio compression exercise in order to reduce their counterparty credit risk and engage in such a portfolio compression exercise in case of 500 or more OTC derivative contracts outstanding with a counterparty which are not centrally cleared. In case the Company comes to the conclusion that portfolio compression is necessary, the Company will inform the client and request additional consent to perform such action.

By accepting the following terms and conditions the client provides the Company with the consent to perform the portfolio compression if necessary.

The Company shall ensure that it is able to provide a reasonable and valid explanation to the relevant competent authority for concluding that a portfolio compression exercise is not appropriate.

17. Client Money Handling Rules

17.1 Unless otherwise agreed with the Client in writing and to the extent allowed under Applicable Regulations, the Company will deal with any funds that it holds for the Client in accordance with the Applicable Regulations. This means that Client funds will be segregated from the Company's own money and cannot be used in the course of Company's business. The Company will promptly place any Client money into one or more Segregated Bank Account(s).

17.2 Unless agreed otherwise the Company shall not account to the Client for profits or interest earned on Client money (other than profit gained through trading Transactions from his Client Trading Account under this Agreement) and the Client waives all right to interest and the entire interest is the profit of the Company.

17.3 The Company may deposit Client money in overnight deposits and will be allowed to keep any interest which will be the profit of the Company.

16.4 The Company may hold Client money and the money of other clients in the same bank account (omnibus account).

17.5 The Company may deposit Client money with a third party who may have a security interest, lien or right of set-off in relation to that money.

17.6 In a case where the financial instruments or funds of that client may be held by a third party on behalf of the Company, the Company takes full responsibility under the Applicable Regulations for any acts or omissions of the third party.

17.7 The Company is a member of the Investors Compensation Fund (ICF). So, depending on his classification, the Client may be entitled to compensation from the ICF in the event that the Company is unable to meet its obligations. More details are found in the Company's document "Investor Compensation Fund".

17.8 The Company shall have a general lien on all funds held by the Company or its Associates or its nominees on the Client's behalf until the satisfaction of his obligations. In case the Client fails to pay or settle any amount by the date on which the said amount is payable, the Company shall be entitled to debit the Client's Trading Account(s) with the said amount.

17.9 The Company will carry out reconciliations of records and Client Money with the records and accounts of the money the Company holds in the Segregated Client Account(s) on a daily basis. If a transfer is required to or from the Segregated Client Account(s) this will be done three times every week. The Company has the right, but not an obligation, to carry out reconciliations and transfers more frequently, if it considers that this is necessary to protect the Company's or a Client's interests.

18. Client Trading Accounts

18.1. Client Trading Accounts may be opened in a range of currencies specified in the Announcement disclosed to the Clients.

18.2. When filling an Account Opening Application Form, the Client shall indicate the currency in which the Company opens the Client's Trading Account.

18.3. Investment effect on closing of a position and commission on a transaction expressed in the currency of a Financial Instrument are recalculated into the Account currency according to the cross rates determined on the basis of the latest offers presented in the Trading Platform.

18.4. The Company may limit the number of opened Accounts for one Client by communicating it through the Announcement sent via email or by informing a client through the phone.

18.5. The funds deposited on the Client's Trading Accounts may be subject to interest. In such a case, information about the details will be disclosed to Clients in an Announcement.

18.6. The Company reserves the right as per the Dormant policy (annex I) to consider a client trading account dormant/inactive. In case a client account is considered as dormant/inactive and such account has positive cash balance, the monthly fee will be imposed of 10 EUR or equivalent depending on a client chosen trading account currency which will be charged within the first three (3) days of the month following the twelfth month of inactivity.

In case a client does not respond to the information regarding the charges for a period of three (3) consecutive months after the twelve (12) months of inactivity, the Company may close a client trading account after prior information was sent to a client. If a client's dormant/inactive account has zero cash balance the monthly fee shall not be imposed.

The Company will consider a client's trading account as dormant/inactive in case a client did not log in to a trading account and /or did not initiate any trading activity or did not carry out any transactions. Where a client has more than 1 (one) trading account and at least one of these trading accounts was active, then no inactivity fee will apply. It should be noted that the Company ensures and keeps the correspondence with each client and informs them by email that their account is being treated as dormant/inactive.

18.7. The Company requires the client to provide full and updated due diligence documents at all times. The Company shall notify the client at least thirty (30) days prior in case any of the provided documents is about to expire. On the expiration day, the Company shall contact the client once again to provide the expired document. In case the client fails to provide the requested documents within five (5) business days, the client's account will be switched to close-mode only, which means client will not be able to perform any transactions, except for closing his open positions, until the requested document is provided.

18.8. In accordance with the Applicable Regulations the Company is obliged to perform the verification of the identity of the Client/or the beneficial owner. If the Client fails to provide the Company with the adequate documents required to perform the verification the Company will refuse to accept the Client.

19. Deposits

- 19.1. Deposits into Clients Trading Account may be processed with use of one of the methods made available to its Clients by the Company.
- 19.2. In the event of a Deposit to a Client's Trading Account in a different currency than the Account Currency, the currency conversion is affected by the bank in which the Company deposits Client's money, at the exchange rates applied by the bank.
- 19.3. Deposit on the Client's Trading Account shall be made immediately, but not later than on the next working day after the cash is effectively transferred to the Company's account.
- 19.4. The Company does not execute the Client's instruction to transfer funds between the Client's Trading Accounts if the accounts are in a different currency.

20. Withdrawals

- 20.1. Withdrawals from the Clients Trading Accounts may be processed with use of one of the methods made available to its Clients by the Company.
- 20.2. The Client may not withdraw the money to the bank account which he does not own. By submitting a Withdraw instruction, the Client is required to indicate the bank account belonging to him.
- 20.3. The Client is allowed to withdraw from the Account an excess over the Margin Call (warning) level. The Company draws the Clients' attention to the fact that if the withdrawal is made in the maximum available amount, small change of the financial instrument price may result in immediate, automatic closure of Customer Opened Positions.
- 20.4. The Company can refuse to execute the Client's Instructions in case it reasonably suspects that it is related to money laundering, financing terrorism or other suspicious or illegal activity or subject to other Applicable Regulations. In such a case, the Company may take required actions in accordance with the Applicable Regulations.
- 20.5. Withdrawal instruction shall be initiated immediately in the Company working hours, no later than the next working day after submission of the Withdrawal.

21. Lien

- 21.1. The Company shall have a general lien on all funds held by the Company on the Client's behalf until the satisfaction of his obligations under this Agreement which aim is solely to secure the performance of the obligations of the Client in accordance with this Agreement.

22. Fees, Taxes and Inducements

- 22.1. The Company shall charge the Client fees and commissions, according to the Costs and Charges, for the provided services.
- 22.2. The Company may temporarily suspend or reduce the amount of the fees and commissions charged based on the Costs and Charges. Such information shall be disclosed to the clients.
- 22.3. Fees and commissions are debited by the Company on the Clients Trading Account without a separate client's Instructions.

22.4. Commissions for the order execution shall be collected at the time of the execution of the transaction.

22.5. As stated in point 10.4, the Company may increase the spread derived from the Liquidity Providers offered by additional spread and/or commission of the Company.

22.6. Should the Company pay or receive any fees or inducements for the introduction of the Client, it shall notify the Client accordingly in compliance with the Applicable Regulations.

23. Swaps and Financing

23.1. In case of maintaining Open Positions on Forex Financial Instruments until the end of the Business Day (17:00 EST), the Company shall calculate the swap points for each position remaining open at the end of the Business Day.

23.2. The amount to be debited or credited to the Client's Trading Account is derived from the swap points specified by the Company in the Contract Specification Document.

23.3. Amounts resulting from swap points, shall be credited or debited to the Client's Trading Account at the time of their accrual.

23.4. In case of maintaining Open Positions on CFD Instruments until the end of the Business Day (17:00 EST), the Company shall calculate the financing points for each position remaining open at the end of the Business Day. Amounts resulting from financing points, shall be credited or debited to the Client's Trading Account at the time of their accrual

23.5. The amount to be debited or credit to the Client's Trading Account is derived from the financing points specified by the Company in the Contract Specification Document.

24. Language

24.1. The Client acknowledges that the Company's official language is the English language and the Client should always read and refer to the main Website in English language for all information and disclosures about the Company and its activities. Translation or information provided in any other languages other than English is for informational purposes only and does not bind the Company or have any legal effect. In the event of a dispute the respective English version shall prevail.

25. Methods of Communications and Written Notices

25.1. Unless the contrary is specifically provided in this Agreement, any notice, request or other communication to be given to the Company by the Client (other than placing Orders) shall be sent via the registered in the company records email of the Client, by telephone (registered in company records, so long as the Company is able to confirm the Clients identity according to paragraph 18.8) or in writing to the Company's address and shall be deemed delivered only when actually received by the Company at:

36.1. The Company may at any time sell, transfer, assign or novate to a third party any or all of its rights, benefits or obligations under this Agreement or the performance of the entire Agreement subject to providing 14 Business Days prior Written Notice to the Client and with the reservation of the Applicable Regulations. This may be done without limitation in the event of merger or acquisition of the Company with a third party, reorganization of the Company, winding up of the Company or sale or transfer of all or part of the business or the assets of the Company to a third party.

36.2. It is agreed and understood that in the event of transfer, assignment or novation described in paragraph 35.1 above, the Company shall have the right to disclose and/or transfer all Client Information (including without limitation personal data, recording, correspondence, due diligence and client identification documents, files and records, the Client trading history) transfer the Client Account and the Client Money as required, subject to providing 14 Business Days prior Written Notice to the Client.

36.3. The Client may not transfer, assign, charge, novate or otherwise transfer or purport to do so the Client's rights or obligations under the Agreement.

37. Authorised Representative

37.1. The Client has no possibility of appointing an authorised representative to the Account.

Annex I Dormant Account Policy

1. Purpose

As per the article 25(3)(a) of the Law 87(l) 2017, the Company must ensure that all information including marketing communications, addressed to clients or potential clients are fair, clear and not misleading.

For this purpose, the Company designed this policy to ensure all clients, prospective clients or former clients are informed adequately of any fees and/or actions taken by the Company in case a client account is assessed to be dormant/inactive.

2. Dormant/Inactive Account

The Company reserves the right as per this policy to consider a client trading account dormant/inactive in case client does not present any activity on this trading account.

The Company will consider a client's trading account as dormant/inactive in case a client did not log in to a trading account and /or did not initiate any trading activity or did not carry out any transaction.

Where a client has more than 1 (one) trading account and at least one of these trading accounts was active, then no inactivity fee is applied.

It should be noted that the Company ensures and keeps a correspondence with each client and informs them by email that their account is being treated as dormant/inactive.

3. Charges

In case a client account is considered as dormant/inactive and such account has positive cash balance, a monthly fee of 10/PLN/EUR/USD/GBP will be imposed. The amount will be charged within the first three (3) days of the month following the twelfth month of inactivity. If a client's dormant/inactive account has zero cash balance the monthly fee shall not be imposed.

In case a client does not respond to the information regarding the charges for a period of three (3) consecutive months after the twelve (12) months of inactivity the Company may close a client trading account after prior information was sent to a client.

4. Reactivation of an account

In case a client wishes to reactivate his dormant/inactive account, the Company will proceed with a completion of the Due Diligence Procedure if it was not completed before an account was categorised as dormant/inactive.

In case the Due Diligence procedure has been completed however, based on the Company's review a client profile requires an update, the Company will request from a client to provide necessary documents in order to update and activate a client account.
